

NAACP/ASD

Improving opportunities and life outcomes for young males of color

February 18, 2015
ASD Education Center
6-8 PM

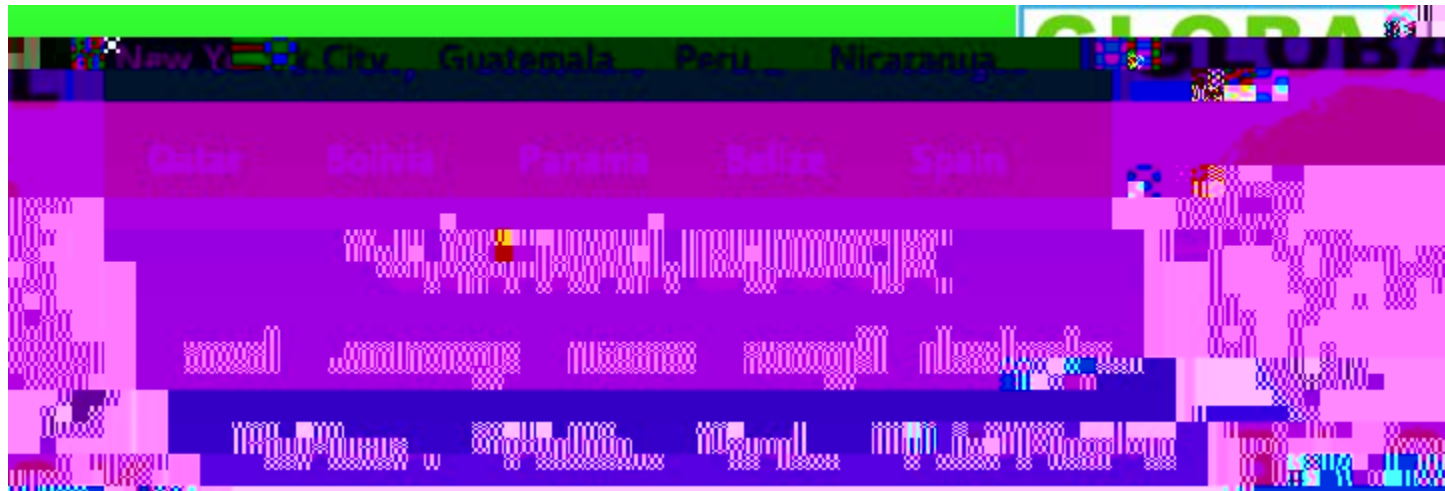

Welcome

Ed Graff, ASD Superintendent
Wanda Greene-Laws, President NAACP

Director & Founder, Global Block Foundation

Where Creativity, Culture and Commerce Connect

One person speaks at a time.

Each speaker gets our full attention.

Have open and respectful dialogue.

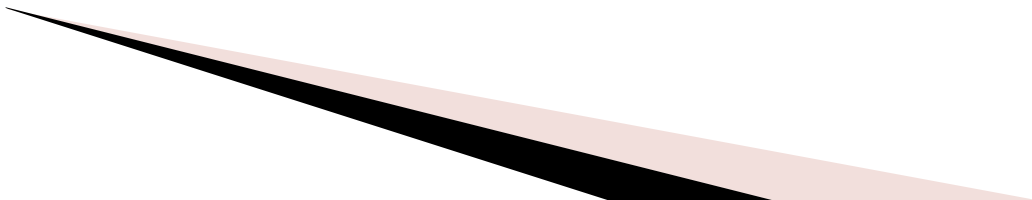

Speak for self.

Keep questions and/or comments to 2 minutes or less.

Verbal and written questions/comments will be accepted and shared.

Share speaking time with others who have not spoken.

Questions/Comments for Dr. Carter or Mr. Tyree

Other Topics:

Cradle-to-School, College & Career Strategies

Quality and Culturally Responsive Education

Municipal Policies/Practices

Community Programs and Community

Partnerships that connect young males of color to mentoring and support networks.

Letter to the MECAC Mission Concerns Advisory Committee

