YOUNG LIONS "MY BROTHER'S KEEPER" MENTORSHIP DINNER/FORUM
REGISTRATION

(SCDI's Young Lions "My Brother's Keeper" Program is designed to help young boys and young men of color succeed in life. The program provides a safe environment where young men can learn from adult male role models of color. The conference kicks off on April 24th, 7 PM in the gymnasium. The program will feature adult male role models of color who will present greetings, President Obama's role models will participate. All participants will attend workshops. The goal of the mentorship program is to help young men realize their potential in the areas of economics, criminal justice and education. Space is limited. All programs and activities are free. Dinner and workshops can participate.
