TRAVEL

Student Travel Approval

1. The purpose of this section is to provide a process for the approval of student travel. The process is designed to ensure that all travel is approved by the appropriate authority and that all travel is in the best interests of the student.

Behavior expectations

2. All students traveling on school business are expected to adhere to the same behavior expectations as students on campus. This includes following all school rules and regulations, as well as maintaining a professional demeanor at all times.

Permission for student travel

3. All student travel must be approved by the appropriate authority. This includes travel for school business, as well as travel for personal reasons.

Travel

4. All travel must be approved by the appropriate authority. This includes travel for school business, as well as travel for personal reasons. The appropriate authority is the principal or administrator responsible for the student's school. The approval process should include a review of the purpose of the travel, the estimated cost, and the potential benefits to the student. The appropriate authority should also consider the student's behavior and academic record before approving travel. All travel should be documented and reported to the appropriate authority.
