

Focus on using just your ears to explore the outdoors!

Find a spot outside and listen carefully for at least one minute.

Record each sound you hear in the box below. Write or draw each sound on the map in the approximate direction and distance you hear it coming from.

Do this with a partner. Did you hear the same things? How are you going to compare your findings?

