

the mascot of Polaris K-12 changes;

1. _____, Wolves are a very common mascot for schools within and outside of our district, and we promote being a unique school;¹
2. _____, Wolves were chosen as the mascot in 1955 and no longer reflect the school's personality;
3. _____, During the 2009/2010 school year, Polaris K-12 students wrote a petition to make the malamute the Alaskan State mascot. This should be a recognized achievement and possibly the new mascot;
4. _____, wolves eat moose, an important Alaskan animal and are therefore not a mascot because it promotes violence;
5. _____, wolves are predatory creatures. The value being a welcoming and open community; and
6. _____, wolves represent power and dominance over other communities, that's not what school is about, it's about self growth, respect, and shared leadership.

_____ the Polaris K-12 mascot change

If voted for people can take the mascot change to the community. It will be presented to advisories and voted on. These _____, _____ the Polaris K-12

Sources: